

This is a short course aiming to provide the participants a brief introduction about the concepts of cognitive-behavioural therapy (CBT). The course will provide an overview of the evidence of efficacy of CBT for a range of psychiatric disorders. This is followed by a brief outline of basic model of CBT and its key intervention strategies including behavioural, cognitive strategies.