

The course is designed to have three parts addressing different aspects of perinatal mental health from different parts of the globe.

Prof. Jane Fisher will speak on Working with Fathers to support the mental health of Mothers in the perinatal period and Working with mothers who need extra support in handling their babies - the Melbourne Experience

Prof. Prabha Chandra will discuss Domestic Violence in the Perinatal Period, assessment, intervention and implications for the mother and fetus.

Prof. Gihan ELNahas will focus on Treating for Two- Rational Psychopharmacology in the Perinatal Period Using medications for the benefit of the mother and fetus.

All sessions will have a didactic, followed by reflective exercises and case vignettes for self learning.